

I shall and will support the retention of Element 1, Morse code and telegraphy.
It is a viable and usable means to communicate, period.
The Morse and telegraphy are the backbone of amateur radio in this Country, The United States.

What the other Countries around the world decide is their business, not a concern of mine.

Earn the stated requirement by the FCC, amateur radio is not a free ride.
FCC, retain Element 1 and Morse requirement.